American Indian Program is proud to announce its greatest thus far participation at NAISA:

June 4, 2015

007. Indigenous New York
Paper Session: June 4, 8:00 to 9:45 am, Hyatt Regency: Glacier
The Senecas in the 17th Century Geo-Political Conundrum; Urszula Plazia-Mansfield, Cornell University

010. Culture and Power
Paper Session, June 4, 8:00 to 9:45 am, Hyatt Regency: Redwood
Cosmopolitan Voices: Women’s Native American Powwow Drum Groups in Northern Appalachia;
Susan M. Taffe Reed, Bowdoin College

021. The Roots/Routes of Maoli Indigeneity: Cultural Subjectivities, Identity, and the Politics of Home
Panel: June 4, 10:00 to 11:45 am, Hyatt Regency: Concord
Chair: Lisa Kahaleole Hall, Wells College

022. ReNarrating Place: Resisting Indigenous Erasure in Settler Place-Making and Public Memory
Panel: June 4, 10:00 to 11:45 am, Hyatt Regency: Congressional D
“Sacred pains for the ancestors”: Memorial as a Social Act of Indigenous Continuity; Ashley Smith, Cornell University

026. Visual Cultures
Paper Session, June 4, 10:00 to 11:45 am, Hyatt Regency: Lexington
"Wander Forever Between the Winds": Native Hauntings in the Western; Lauren Alexandra Harmon, Cornell University

031. Indigenous Food Sovereignty in Action, Part II: Indigenous Identity and Education
Panel, June 4, 10:00 to 11:45 am, Hyatt Regency: Regency D
Gardening, Digital Storytelling, and Indigenous Ways of Knowing - A Case Study from the Seneca Nation of Indians E.C.L.C.;
Jason Corwin, Department of Natural Resources

033. Indigenous Knowledge, Memory, and Things
Paper Session, June 4, 10:00 to 11:45 am, Hyatt Regency: Yellowstone
Andrew Blackbird's Quillwork Histories; Daniel M Radus, Cornell University

June 5, 2015

088. Remembering the Native Northeast
Paper Session: June 5, 8:00 to 9:45 am, Hyatt Regency: Yosemite
“Short Narration” and Mahican Sachem Aupaunut’s Vision:
Understanding Mahican Political Imaginaries in the Post-Revolutionary Era; Namgyal Tsepak, Cornell University
June 5, 2015

091. Reconsidering Colonial Schooling: Case Studies in Indigenous Education from Eastern North America
Panel: June 5, 10:00 to 11:45 am
Hyatt Regency: Columbia C
Responding to the “Civilization” Policy: Haudenosaunee Women, Colonial Schooling, and Agricultural Transformation; Alyssa Mt. Pleasant, University at Buffalo

097. Ecological Interventions
Paper Session: June 5, 10:00 to 11:45 am
Hyatt Regency: Lexington
Pre-Columbian Agriculture in North America: So, They Had It All Wrong! Now What? Jane Mt.Pleasant, Cornell University

104. Contesting State Resource Management
Paper Session: June 5, 10:00 to 11:45 am
Hyatt Regency: Yellowstone
Restore the River, Restore the People? The Lower Elwha Klallam and the Historical Structure of Environmental Inequality K. Whitney Mauer, Hobart & William Smith Colleges

115. Hosting NAISA: An Information Session
Roundtable, June 5, 2:00 to 3:45 pm
Hyatt Regency: Grand Teton
Chair: Alyssa Mt. Pleasant, University at Buffalo

126. Feminism, Gender, Queerness, Sexuality: Keywords for Indigenous Studies?
Presidential Plenary Session, June 5, 6:00 to 7:00 pm
Hyatt Regency: Regency A
Chair: Mark Rifkin, University of North Carolina, Greensboro
Presenters:
Jodi Byrd, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
Joanne Barker, San Francisco State University
Lisa Kahaleole Hall, Wells College
Mishuana R Goeman, University of California, Los Angeles
Craig Womack, Emory University

June 6, 2015

133. Alternatives to Settler Resource Management
Paper Session, June 6, 8.00 to 9.45 am
Hyatt Regency: Glacier
The Jungle Is Our Market: Indigenous Movements, Leftist Governments, and Extractivism in Bolivia and Ecuador; Simon Velasquez, Cornell University
137. The Politics of Indigenous Aesthetics: Occupation, Intervention and Invention
Roundtable: June 6, 8:00 to 9:45 am
Hyatt Regency: Regency B
Presenters: Jolene Rickard, Cornell University; Ellen Gabriel, Independent Artist and Activist
Brett Graham, Independent Scholar; Dylan Miner, Michigan State University
David Garneau, University of Regina

149. Slavery: Real and Imagined
Paper Session, June 6, 10:00 to 11:45 am
Hyatt Regency: Glacier
The Shatter Zone, Settler Colonialism, and Saponi Presence Troy Richardson, Cornell University

150. Confronting Gendered Silencing
Paper Session, June 6, 10:00 to 11:45 am
Hyatt Regency: Grand Teton
Chair: Susan Taffe Reed, Bowdoin College

160. J.N.B. Hewitt in 21st Century Scholarship
Panel: June 6, 2:00 to 3:45 pm
Hyatt Regency: Bryce
Tsi Tchohakatón:nih: Partnership and Ownership in the Work of J.N.B. Hewitt; Amber Meadow Adams; Cornell University

176. Diasporic Times: Complicating Space-Based Approaches to Native American and Indigenous Diasporas
Panel: June 6, 4pm-5:45pm
Hyatt Regency: Bryce
Eradication Nation: Disrupting the Time of Settler-Colonialism in Simon Ortiz’s From Sand Creek and Sherwin Bitsui’s Flood Song; Christopher Pexa, Cornell University

178. Hemispheric Challenges to Legal Constructions of the Indian
Panel: June 6, 4:00 to 5:45 pm
Hyatt Regency: Columbia C
Baby Veronica, ICWA, and the Continued Erosion of Tribal Sovereignty; Theresa Rocha-Beardall, Cornell University; Tribal Sovereignty and Its Discontents: Retrospective Falsification in Modern Judicial and Governing Practices in the Navajo Nation; Andrew Curley, Cornell University

179. Feelings and Transgression
Paper Session: June 6, 4:00 to 5:45 pm
Hyatt Regency: Concord
The Affect of Survivance: Feeling Resistance in the Settler-Colonial Condition; Pollyanna Nordstrand, Cornell University