Sekon, Cornell Native American Alumni.

Please join us for the 7th Cornell Native American Alumni Association (CNAAA) Reunion in Ithaca on June 7–9, 2013. This year marks the 30th anniversary of the American Indian Program (AIP), and we hope you are able to celebrate with us.

The Reunion committee has been working hard to provide opportunities for you to reconnect with old friends and meet new ones. Events have been designed to facilitate connections as Native American alumni and as part of the larger Cornell community.

Whether this is your first CNAAA reunion or you are a repeat attendee, plan to arrive early because you won’t want to miss a thing. On Friday, immediately following the Olin Lecture, we will be hosting an Iroquois Social at Bailey Plaza. After the social, Barbara Abrams, MA ’84 and Dr. Jane Mt. Pleasant ’80, MS ’82 will be hosting a traditional dinner. Then you will still have time to catch the Chorus and Glee Club Concert at Bailey Hall, head to Arts Quad tent parties, or just go back to Akwe:kon to hang out with friends old and new.

On Saturday, we have a light breakfast available, because we know that you’ll want to head out to experience the intellectual and social events that are part of what makes Reunion so special. In addition to the Reunion Run, State of the University Address, Olin Lecture, and more, Mosaic is hosting a special forum this year on “Changing Faces in Entertainment and Media.” The evening holds the CNAAA reception and dinner highlighting 30 years of the American Indian Program. As you know from personal experience, Cornell’s Native American alumni have been integral to AIP’s past successes and also play an important role in its future.

Reunion 2013 includes classes from the 3s and 8s, along with CNAAA and the Cornell Asian Alumni Association. If you are a member of one of those classes, you will receive class Reunion materials separately. All Native American alumni and families, regardless of year, are welcome to attend CNAAA’s Reunion.

So, start making plans! Take advantage of the early-bird fees and register before May 10. You can find the Reunion schedule and registration information at alumni.cornell.edu/reunion. If you have any favorite former professors you’d like to invite to any CNAAA events, let us know and we will do our best. Connect with us through our Facebook page at facebook.com/groups/cnaaa.

We are looking forward to seeing you in June!
